To the Majesty's, in Council of Madras

The Memorial of [illegible]

Humbly sheweth

That your Memorialist has been employed by the Honble the Court of Directors in the Collectorate of [illegible] for the last [illegible] years.

That in the course of his duty he has had frequent occasion to observe the great inconvenience which the Ryots labour under from the Cubeldars, who are appointed to collect the Revenue from the Villages, and who, from the power which they possess, are enabled to oppress the Ryots in a manner which it is impossible for the Ryots to obtain redress.

That your Memorialist has frequently had occasion to represent to the Collector the oppressions which the Ryots have complained of, but that he has found it impossible to obtain redress for them, as the Cubeldars have generally been able to prove that they have acted by the orders of the Head Farmers, who have in their turn shewn that they have acted by the orders of the Collector.

That your Memorialist has frequently had occasion to observe that
